County events encourage residents to “Be Counted!”

Across the county on Saturday March 20, 2010, several events will assist in raising Census awareness and encourage residents to return forms from the 2010 U.S. Census.

Participation in the Census is critical to the county. The Census will be used to determine the region's representation in Congress and how more than $400 billion in federal funding is allocated.

Local events will make Census materials available and will display posters encouraging participation. The County Museum in Redlands will highlight special exhibits and events, County Regional Parks will host a Trout Derby at Mojave Narrows in Victorville, and the City of San Bernardino will make materials available for attendees to the San Bernardino History and Rail Museum at the Santa Fe Depot.

Additionally, members of the county's Leadership Development Network will deliver materials to community organizations and local businesses.
